WORKING TOGETHER FOR NATICK

a business + education reception with Josh Ostroff candidate for re-election to the Natick Board of Selectmen

All are welcome to a discussion of how government and business can and must work together to support innovation, jobs, and public education

Monday, February 27, 5:00 – 7:00 PM, Hampton Inn Natick

Proven leadership for Natick: listening, learning and following through

Josh Ostroff is a six-year member of the Natick Board of Selectmen, the MetroWest Regional Collaborative and the Massachusetts Municipal Association, and is a Natick and regional leader in promoting a healthy business climate and a values-driven approach to town government. Josh works to attract and retain worldwide companies and the local businesses that provide quality services and products to support a dynamic workforce.

Working together—the key to success!

Natick has proven that to succeed in this economy, established and growing companies alike value great schools, infrastructure, transportation, predictable taxes, responsive government and the vibrant cultural/recreational opportunities that Josh champions.

All are welcome to attend!
